Blues Traveler to headline 2018 Concert for Carver

GO

Thursday, February 15, 2018 4:34 AM

The Port Chester Carver Center will host its 4th "Concert for Carver" benefit at The Capitol Theatre on Sunday, February 25. The Concert for Carver is the first of three events the organization is hosting to celebrate its 75th anniversary. This lively event is intended to raise funds to sustain and innovate programs that transforms lives and deeply impact the families in and around Port Chester.

Blues Traveler is also celebrating a milestone anniversary, 30 years of the band's formation. The band originated in Princeton, Jersey in 1987. Mihali, lead singer of Twiddle, a vibrant Jam Band, will be the opening act.

Rye residents Derek and Molly Mahoney are chairing this year's concert. Derek serves on Carver's Board of Directors and is committed to engaging the greater Port Chester and Rye community with the organization's mission. Derek and Molly's leadership will heighten awareness and raise money to support much-needed programs such as Carver Center's food market, after school program, and the only public swimming pool in the community.

Carver is hoping to sell more than 1,200 tickets. The concert is a key aspect of our Carver fundraising program, as the organization must raise 60% of its general operating budget (as government funding only accounts for approximately 10% of the organizational budget). Tickets can be purchased through the Capitol Theatre's website @ <https://www.thecapitoltheatre.com/event/1623743-blues-traveler-port-chester/>. Ticket prices start at $37.50. VIP tickets give guests a private pre-show party, plus a post-show meet and greet with Blues Traveler at Garcia's.
