Scholar Orientation Night		24	NIA JFK Visit	16	NIA JFK Visit	6	The Nia girls visited the JFK CAP 5th grade "little sisters" to continue working on building the bonds of sisterhood through conversation and interactive games/activities.
			Nia Meeting	17	Scholars Mtg	15	The monthly All-Scholars meeting focused on understanding and developing life skills, from financial literacy to effective communication, as well as listening and critical thinking skills. Sports schedules and personal obligations (i.e. babysitting younger siblings) effected attendance.
Youth Police Initiative Leadership Program		7	Nia Meeting	15	Sharing Shelf Teen Boutique	4	Teens volunteer at the Sharing Shelf's annual Teen Boutique event, where all participants are able to shop for a week's worth of new or gently used clothing for free. We had lower participation this year due to conflicting events, such as the college tour.
			Nia JFK Visit #2	13			Teens visited colleges in upstate New York to gain more information on the college admissions process, college level expectations, student life/campus living as well as which college might be the right fit for them.
			Columbus Day Parade	12			Teens and their families came together and cooked dishes for a community Thanksgiving dinner. Thoughts of thankfulness were shared, as we broke bread together.
LIM College Visit		3	NYC Haunted House	23	Teen Center Thanksgiving Dinner	26	The Nia girls planned for the Big Sister-Little Sister Holiday Party.
			Malcolm Pray Achievement Center Grit Night	5			Teens baked pumpkin and sweet potato pies for the Teen Center Thanksgiving event.
Scholars Mtg		20	TC Annual Haunted House	25	Nia Meeting	13	Teens watched the documentary "Swiped", which covers dating in the digital age via social media. It dicussed how the art of dating has dramatically changed noting positives and negatives from various view points.
Nia Meeting (Officers)		3	Unity Meeting #1	13	Baking Pies	7
